

For
the first

the first time

kids

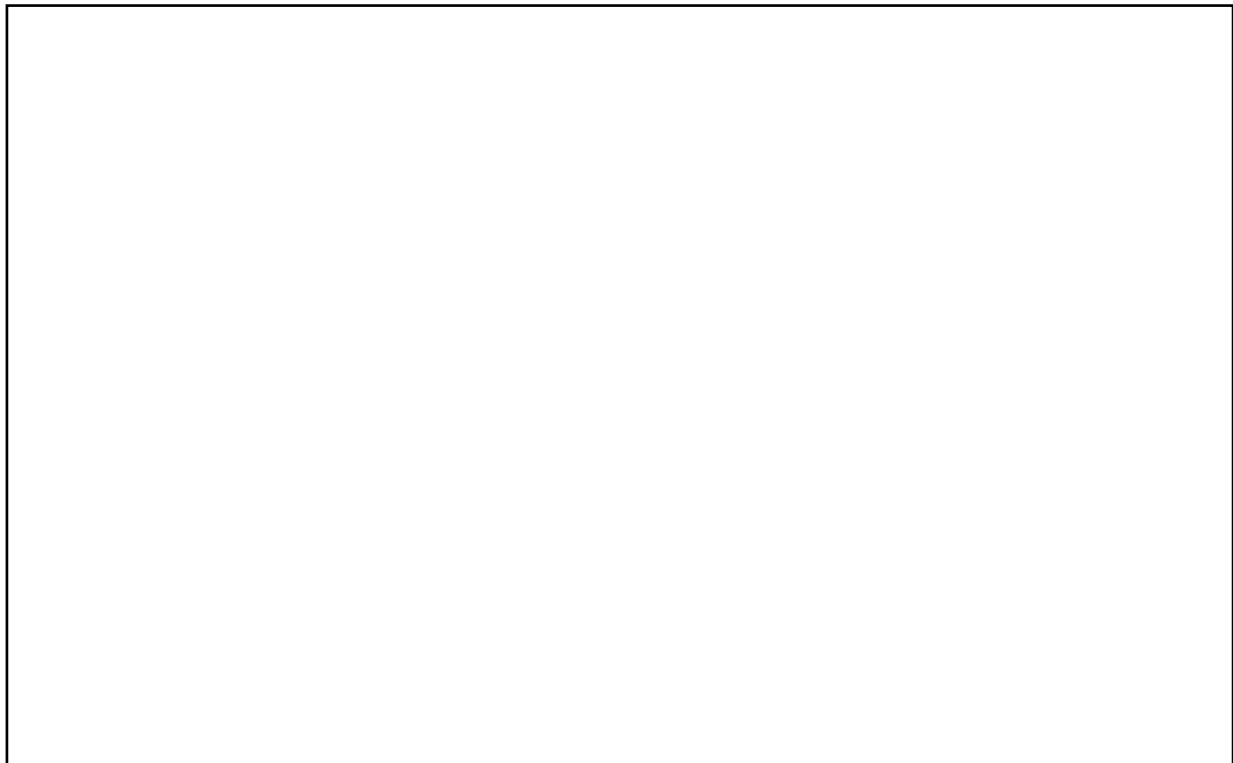

draw

Klinger got his start as a fashion illustrator. Find this poster!

- What do you notice?
- Can you find any other posters that feature fashion?
- Think of one of your favorite outfits. Use this box to draw an advertisement for it.

Bonus: When you get home, color in your advertisement!

write

What do you notice about this poster for the zoo?

- Why do you think Klinger chose to feature a flamingo?
- Why do you think Klinger made the flamingo so much bigger than the building?
- If you were to feature one extra large animal on a zoo poster, which animal would you choose and why?

Write about your choice here:

perform

This is a poster for a performance. What type of performance do you think it's advertising?

Imagine a scene from this performance and spend 20 seconds acting it out at home!

FIU | The Wolfsonian

Julius Klinger: Posters for a Modern Age is organized by The Wolfsonian–Florida International University, Miami Beach, Florida.

austrian cultural forum™

Additional support is provided by the Austrian Cultural Forum New York.